"CRESCO." We have taken the agency for the celebrated CRESCO Corset—a Corset that cannot break at the waist. It matters not what the style of a Corset is, or what it is made of, if it breaks at the waist, it is rendered uncomfortable and useless. The CRESCO Corset is disconnected in front at the waist line, and has elastic gores at the sides, so it cannot break at the waist. Suitable any day and all the day. Good to work in, walk in or rest in. It is shapely, comfortable and durable, and as it cannot break at the waist, it is the cheapest Corset a lady can buy. They come in white—long, short or medium waist. Price, $1. The next time you buy a Corset, try a CRESCO.

How To Gain Flesh

Persons have been known to gain a pound a day by taking an ounce of SCOTT'S EMULSION. It is strange, but it often happens.

Somehow the ounce produces the pound; it seems to start the digestive machinery going properly, so that the patient is able to digest and absorb his ordinary food, which he could not do before, and that is the way the gain is made.

A certain amount of flesh is necessary for health; if you have not got it you can get it by taking

The 17th inst, while in New Orleans attending school, the young lady, who was only seventeen years old, was sitting at a table writing a letter when a little child, about five years old, opened a closet door and brought out a target gun. Miss Bean, anxious for the child's welfare, made a hurried effort to take the gun from it, and in so doing the gun was discharged, how, it is not known, and the ball entered her head. For several days her condition was reported favorable, and the announcement of her death was a shocking surprise to her friends here.

Bank Robber Trials.

The trial of Gray, Keely, Mills and Marsh was the sensation of the present term of the Ohio Circuit Court in Kentucky there is no special statute against bank burglary and the men who cracked the Bank of Hartford safe were simply charged with housebreaking.

G. G. Gray was tried first, and pleaded not guilty, and was given the limit of the law—five years. Tuesday the case of Dan Keely was called, who also, pleaded not guilty. The jury took the case at 4 o'clock in the afternoon, but decided to sleep on it. Of course, nobody familiar with the case, doubted the result of the verdict of guilty, which was brought in Wednesday morning, and his punishment was fixed at five years in the penitentiary.

While the jury was out with Keely's case, Marsh and Mills decided to plead guilty, which they did when court convened Wednesday morning.

In consideration of his entering a plea of guilty, Mills was given only 3 years and six months. The case of H. L. Marsh was the last to be heard. It will be remembered that Marsh was the man who told the officers, when arrested, where the booty was which made the conviction of any of them possible, and besides the conviction had gained currency here that this was Marsh's first serious offense, and because of these facts, he was given only eighteen months.

BIG TALK.

There'll be lots of it now. The discount season is now at hand—the season when the windy announcements of big discounts on Clothing and Wash Dress Goods appear. These spasms always come two or three times a year.

Our discount season lasts the whole year around. We have built up our mammoth business by always selling at lower prices than other stores. In the Suit line, you will always find by comparison that our prices are from one to three dollars less on the same quality than elsewhere. If you will compare our prices with those of others, you will find that every article in our store is marked at or below zero. We know that this is the best method for building up and holding business.

Remember, we carry complete lines of General Merchandise and Furniture.

We take in exchange for goods, all kinds of Country Produce, such as Wool, Chickens, Eggs, Feathers, Ginseng, Yellow Rood, Etc.
